Dear Mr. McCone:

I ask your assistance in carrying out, in the Central Intelligence Agency, a Nation-wide program for the observance of Human Rights Week (December 10-17). December 10, 1961, marks the thirteenth anniversary of the adoption of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights by the United Nations General Assembly.

Since 1948, the President of the United States, the Governors of a number of States, and many civic officials annually have noted the importance of the occasion by issuing proclamations on the subject. I would be grateful if you would bring this event to the attention of the employees of the Central Intelligence Agency.

The Secretariat of the U. S. National Commission for UNESCO (Code 182, Extension 2963), in the Department of State, is prepared to assist in developing any Human Rights Week communication that you might wish to distribute in your Agency.

Sincerely,

Dean Husk

The Honorable
John A. McCone,
Director,
Central Intelligence Agency.
